ABOUT CFRO

Each year, thousands of men are released into the community from our judicial system. Many of them lack the basic skill sets and necessary know-how to become productive members of society. Most, truly want to be productive members, but lack the insight into what that productivity looks like.

CFRO has a successful history of providing comprehensive strategies to assist with unmet needs of the formerly incarcerated. Through peer mentoring strategies the program creates positive brotherhood relationships among the formerly incarcerated. CFRO assist the formerly incarcerated, their family, friends and significant others in navigating the challenges they might face during the reintegration process. In doing so, CFRO offers a safe and supportive place and caring role models that provides access to positive reference points for successful reentry.

CFRO PHILOSOPHY

It is the belief of CFRO that the pathway to sobriety and freedom is paved with knowledge and truth; with forgiveness and retribution and with responsibility and commitment of oneself. All of which will lead to a self-empowering, self-affirming and self-determining Man.

SIMPLE TRUTHS:

“Until you reach the end of the road, there is still time to change the path you’ve chosen” Susan Gale

It always come down to just two choices. Get busy living or get busy dying” Shawshank Redemption

“Fear can hold you prisoner, hope can set you free” Shawshank Redemption

“Some birds are not meant to be caged their feathers are too bright” Shawshank Redemption

“Hope is a dangerous thing. Hope can drive a man insane” Shawshank Redemption

CFRO PRIMARY GOALS FOR PARTICIPANTS ARE:

Staying Sober

Staying Alert to Relapse Triggers

Staying Law Abiding

Staying Healthy and Productive

Staying connected to Family and Community

Staying Morally/Spiritually Focused

Staying Free of all self-defeating behaviors
